The Prosecuting Witnesses Do Not Ap-

Bert Havens was arraigned yesterday before Justice Whitehorns on the charge of forgery. W. J. Houston, the complaining witness, was not present and could not be found. The prosecution asked for a continuance in order to give Mr. Houston an opportunity to appear, but as the case had already been continued two or three times and it was stated that the matter had been fixed up to the satisfaction of the complainant, and that he did not wish to prosecute, his honor dismissed the action. The several other charges of the same nature against Havens, which were pending have also been made good.
